What To Do If You Think You Find A Mistake On Your Statement

If you think there is an error on your statement, contact us:

Phone: 850.862.0111 or 800.367.6159 | Web: www.eglinfcu.org | Email: memberservices@eglinfcu.org

Address: 838 Eglin Parkway NE Fort Walton Beach, Florida 32547-2781

Business Days: Monday through Friday, 9:00 am to 5:00 pm (CST). Federal holidays and weekends not included.

- In your letter, give us the following information:
- Account information: Your name and account number.
 - Dollar amount: The dollar amount of the suspected error.
 - Description of Problem: If you think there is an error on your statement, describe what you believe is wrong and why you believe it is a mistake.

You must contact us within 60 days after the error appeared on your statement.

You must notify us immediately of any potential errors in writing [or electronically].

- While we investigate whether or not there has been an error, the following are true:
- We cannot try to collect the amount in question, or report you as delinquent on that amount.
 - The charge in question may remain on your statement, and we may continue to charge you interest on that amount. But, if we determine that we made a mistake, you will not have to pay the amount in question or any interest or other fees related to that amount.
 - While you do not have to pay the amount in question, you are responsible for the remainder of your balance.
 - We can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit.

In Case of Errors or Questions About Your Electronic Transfers

Telephone, Write or Email us at the above contact information as soon as you can, if you think your statement or receipt is wrong or if you need more information about a transfer listed on the statement or receipt. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent the FIRST statement on which the problem or error appeared.

- (1) Tell us your name and account number.
- (2) Describe the error or the transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error or why you need more information.
- (3) Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

If you tell us orally, we will require that you send us your complaint or question in writing within 10 business days. We will determine whether an error occurred within 10 business days after we hear from you and will correct any error promptly. If we need more time, however, we may take up to 45 days to investigate your complaint or question. If we decide to do this, we will provisionally credit your account within 10 business days for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation. If we do not receive your complaint or question in writing within 10 business days, we may remove the provisional credit from your account.

For errors involving new accounts, point-of-sale, or foreign-initiated transactions, we may take up to 90 days to investigate your complaint or question. Your account is considered a new account for the first 30 days after the first deposit is made. For new accounts, we may take up to 20 business days to credit your account for the amount you think is in error.

We will tell you the results within three business days after completing our investigation. If we decide that there was no error, we will send you a written explanation. You may ask for copies of the documents that we used in our investigation.
